

Santa's Little Fundraisers

The Pilot in Wolverhampton has raised a whopping £746.65 so far for Make-A-Wish UK.

From taking part in a treacherous wolf run, to hosting a community cake raffle where the winner, Briony Kingsley, won a professional cake, the team are going above and beyond.

Special shout out to Jennie Walsh, Briony Kingsley and Ashley Aboagye-Ward for their involvement and good luck to the team with their next fundraiser – the peak climb.

Feast for a cause

Sizzling teams across the country celebrated Festive Make-A-Wish UK day on Saturday 2nd December by holding fundraising events, raising a grand-total of £3,037.

What's more, we launched a limited-edition festive Hallelujmi Burger with 25p for every burger sold going to Make-A-Wish UK, raising an additional £2,305.

Slaying in style

For the Friendly Forester's charity day in Bridlington, staff raided the festive dressing-up box to raise funds for two charities – Make-A-Wish UK and Cash for Kids. They also held a cake sale, tombola, lucky dip, and raffle, raising a whopping £260 for both charities.

Elf-tastic Fun

Elves were also the theme at the Owton Lodge in Hartlepool. As part of their Christmas fundraising shift, supervisor Emma Carroll ran an elf-inspired children's craft morning with front-of-house staff, Xuxa Benven and Alisha Knox, where kids played party games, made foam Christmas characters and got their faces painted.

JAMES' STORY

Five-year-old James, who suffers from the rare blood disorder

diamond blackfan anaemia, got his wish to go to Lapland to meet Santa. Since his diagnosis, James' condition has meant he has often missed out on the magic of Christmas. It was also the first time the family were able to go on holiday abroad.

Those three magical days were possible thanks to the incredible Make-A-Wish UK charity.

Feeling the chill

Meanwhile, at The Coopers Inn in Stevenage, staff bravely endured the -2°C weather to raise money by taking on an ice bucket challenge for Make-A-Wish UK.

The fearless staff members who got drenched included the general manager Martin Ratcliff, and staff members Sherry Bates, and Luke Mulcahy.

There were also less chilly events held, such as a cake sale and Make-A-Wreath. In total, the pub raised a terrific £380.
