

Hiss-terical fun

The Old Manor Inn in Weston Super Mare fundraised an incredible £533 for Make-A-Wish UK by hosting a magic show and an animal show. Natalie Stone, general manager of the pub, and Mia Plumley, assistant manager, even got involved in the action by bravely coming face to face with a butterscotch snake.

Bake-A-Wish

The Sizzling team at The Woodland in Ellesmere Port helped raise vital funds for Make-A-Wish UK by putting families at the heart of their fundraising efforts. Local families were invited to take part in bingo, scavenger hunts, a 'Bake-A-Wish' cake sale, a teddy tombola and a mini disco. But the children didn't have all the fun as the pub held a Karaoke DJ for the adults, raising a whopping £430!

Slime fun

The general manager, Chris Green, at The Highfield in Chesterfield, got clogged with slime to raise money for the incredible charity for the second year in a row. Plus, the site held various activities including a craft market, bouncy castle and face painting station which led to a gooey donation of £586!

ALYSSIA'S STORY

Five-year-old Alyssia, who suffers from acute liver failure, fulfilled her dream of being a princess for the day thanks to Make-A-Wish UK. After a glamorous princess-inspired makeover, Alyssia was whisked away in a limo to a castle-style Airbnb fit for a queen with her mum and nan where Princess Alyssia got to spend the day with her fellow fantasy princesses. All of this wouldn't be possible if it wasn't for the incredible charity making dreams come true. Thank you to our fantastic teams across the UK for your continued fundraising efforts and to our guests for their generous donations.

Pedal Power

Team members from The Sun in Lofthouse, West Yorkshire, got a sweat on for Make-A-Wish UK by taking part in a bike ride challenge. The team which included general manager Natalie Young, assistant manager Chris, and Tia from Front of House cycled the distance from Lands' End to John O Groats — 672 miles! But their sweat and achy joints were all worth it as together they raised over £400.
